under the control of the Irish Republican Army. This action is to be taken as a deterrent to further outrages and as an example to other districts.

According to the castle statement, many mail routes have been raided in the last few days. Throughout the country, mail has been intercepted and the contents destroyed. Outrages during last week with forty-three deaths, compared

MESSAGE CARRIES HINT OF TRAGEDY AT HOLLYWOOD

PLAYING OF FAMILY IMPLIED IN CRYPTIC WIRE FROM WOMAN

Hint of a dire tragedy is contained in a telegram received tonight by Chief of Police Pendegast from Lee Herdman, who is asking him to investigate the following wire which he said had received from his wife, Mrs. Kathryn Herdman, 7117 Hollywood street, Hollywood:

"When you receive this you had better make arrangements to take care of bodies."

Sergeant Stevens and Patrolman Roeder of Hollywood station were promptly dispatched to the address given and found that Mrs. Herdman and her two daughters had left the house at 7 p.m. Up to an early hour this morning they had not returned nor had any report been received of anything happening to them.

In the house was found a letter from an attorney indicating that Mrs. Herdman was divorced and was receiving $85 a month alimony. This she had apparently tried to have increased and the request had been refused. At the bottom of the note was written in pencil, apparently by Mrs. Herdman: "In no place in this world may a woman obtain justice."

The neighbors know little of the family. One of the daughters is about 17 and is said to attend the Hollywood School for Girls. The other is younger.

AMERICA SUPERIOR.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—What officials believe to be complete information as to the relative naval strength of the principal world powers is now in possession of the American government. Whether it will be presented to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in connection with that committee's consideration of proposals looking to world disarmament has not been disclosed.

The information has been compiled in the form of tables which show that Great Britain's sea power is double that of the United States, and that although the United States with the completion in 1923 of the American building program, the American Navy will still be greatly inferior in types of vessels which naval officers regard as extremely important, notably destroyer leaders, cruisers and light cruisers, cruising submarines and airplane ships.

NOTED FEUD LEADER DIES.

"Devil Anse" Hatfield, Veteran of Many a Mountain Ambush, Passes.

HUNTINGTON (W. Va.) Jan. 7.—"Devil Anse" Hatfield, noted leader in the Hatfield-McCoy feud of thirty years ago, is dead. Word of his death last night in the Hatfield home at Island Creek, Logan county, W. Va., reached Huntington tonight. Paralysis caused death.

Anderson ("Devil Anse") Hatfield was one of the leaders of the historic feud between the Hatfield and McCoy families in the mountains of West Virginia and Northern Kentucky. Shot at from ambush and in hand-to-hand combat across a river with the McCoy, he had always predicted he would die at a natural death, as he now has at the age of 80 years without bearing any marks of battle.

"Devil Anse" had a reputation as a crack shot that was known throughout the mountainous region of the two states and at the age of 70, he could shoot a squirrel out of the tallest timber. He often turned the McCoy family into the old rifle that he carried ready for action at all hours, and with which, during the early eighties, he would shoot on sight any member of the McCoy family.

HOGS CAUSE BELLE. The celebrated feud of the Hatfield-McCoy families, which started over some hogs, one of the Hatfields winning a lawsuit that was brought to determine their ownership. Soon after that a brother of "Devil Anse" was shot and wounded in more than fifteen places by the McCoy family. He then started and did not end until the few remaining McCoy went over into Kentucky, where they now reside.

"Devil Anse" had none of the attributes of the "bad man" in his character. He always was recognized as a loyal friend to his neighbors with whom he was acquainted. Numbered among those who believed he had been killed by the McCoy family was the late Judge John J. Jackson, known as the "Iron Judge" who was appointed to the Federal bench by President Lincoln, and former Gov. Wilson, the former respected Hatfield from a capture when he had been called into court, and the latter refusing to honor a requisition of the Governor of Kentucky for the arrest of "Devil Anse" on a charge of killing some particular member of the McCoy family.

PROSECUTED BY JUDGE. Detectives and allies had arranged for the capture of Hatfield, spurred by a reward, after he had seen to it that he was indicted on a charge of whiskey selling. In 1883, Judge Jackson was on the bench at the time and was informed of the danger that awaited the accused man. Judge Jackson sent word to Hatfield that if he would appear in court without an offense he can be ordered deported by the State Department, which has jurisdiction over violations of the passport regulations.

Boland's violent declarations of a New York mass meeting. It was declared, may have an important bearing on the case of Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork, whose arrival at Newport News the other day as a stevedore has resulted in a conflict of jurisdiction between the State Department and Secretary of Labor Wilson.

BOTH HERE ILLEGALLY. Both Boland and O'Callaghan, who is reported in official quarters, had entered the United States in violation of law, and Acting Secretary of State Davis announced today that he is investigating the status of both men with a view to acting.

Boland, it was stated, is not only subject to deportation, but is also in the United States without a passport, but his violent utterances at Madison Square Garden last night may have been a warning to the State Department.

SENATOR HARDING IS IN COMPLETE accord with the policy, said Mr. Kahn. "He is deeply concerned about reduction of the burden now resting on the shoulders of taxpayers and he believes much can be saved by reducing the Army strength to 175,000 as soon as possible and the Navy to 150,000 as a continuing maximum.

"I am sure Senator Harding does not believe that the millions of dollars he is spending in the near future," the conference at which Mr. Harding also indicated his desire for a well-organized reserve force was one of a series he is holding with Congressional leaders in charge of military and naval legislation. Soon he is to see Chairman Butler of the House Naval Committee, to strengthen in that arm of the service and to shape a continuing policy for naval armament.

Although the Army occupied the President-elect's major attention today, many other questions were touched on by him in a busy string of conferences. One visitor who attracted particular attention was Andrew W. Mellon of Pittsburgh, formerly Secretary of the Treasury. He had a long conference with Senator Harding at which he said general financial conditions were discussed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Open advocacy of a race riot against the British uttered in New York last night by Harry Boland, secretary of Eamonn De Valera and an alien who entered the United States without inspection and without a passport, has aroused officials of this government.

State Department officials admitted today that they had instituted an investigation into Boland's status in this country. Although no formal complaint ever has been lodged against Boland's presence here without authority, it was stated that a complaint is necessary if the fact can be established that Boland entered the United States illegally. For the offense he can be ordered deported by the State Department, which has jurisdiction over violations of the passport regulations.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 7.—When the Southern California legislators are approaching the subject of reapportionment in a "liberal frame of mind," as they maintain, or are seeking to "hog the State," as some of their northern colleagues aver, was the subject of conversation to-day at the subject of reapportionment.

Approval of the reapportionment bill, submitted by Senator Boggs of Stockton, was deferred by forty representatives from southern counties at a special conference called by Senator Lyon of Venice, chairman of the Southern California delegation.

Senator Boggs attended the conference and explained his proposal in detail, denying, parenthetically, that his measure was to be considered as purely an administration bill.

OBJECTIONS MADE.

It is believed that tentative approval of the bill, as requested by Senator Lyon, was prevented by the presence of Assemblymen Kern, Ventura and Santa Barbara, who are protesting against the measure.

Strong objection was made by Assemblyman George E. Hume of Ventura to Senator Boggs's proposal to divide the State into districts of approximately 100,000 people.

YANKEE FLYERS MET HARDSHIPS.

as the three had gone through would have ended their lives. Caribou moss is by no means highly nutritious. It is particularly lucky that the balloonists that they happened to become stranded on there at a time when the weather was unusually mild for that period of the year. The ground was only slightly covered with snow, so the moss could be found easily.

"When the three had been brought inside to the warmth and rest, when they had got their breath, as it were, they expressed concern as to their relatives and friends, who they might have given them up for lost.

HOMING PIGEONS EATEN.

"They had brought three homing pigeons with them for the purpose of posting those below the border as to their movements, but it had become necessary to sacrifice two of these birds to stave off starvation. The third pigeon would also have had to be killed and eaten, but for the chance meeting with the Indian trapper."

"This last surviving pigeon," said Brown, "was shot by me in the coat of Lieut. Kloor, who was overjoyed at having saved it from an American's hands. He then wrote out a 100-word message to be conveyed by the bird to the rescue party. Kloorway, Brown and I myself, had the message attached and sent the bird on its flight. I have not yet heard whether or not it was successful."

"While the balloonists were being rescued, the upper floor of Central building, where they had been, was being arranged for their accommodation and they were resting quite comfortably when I left for Mattie and Montreal."

Speaking of the return journey to military headquarters below the border, Brown pointed out that the journey from Moose Factory to Mattie would occupy about sixteen or seventeen days. He thought that Lieut. Farrell, who seems to have suffered most throughout the trying experience, might have to make the journey in a very short time, but the other two would be able to accompany the sleighs on foot and thereby be spared.

There were likely to be three dog sleighs, he said, "one of them carrying provisions for the journey. Another would carry the mail, and the other two would be able to accompany the sleighs on foot and thereby be spared."

The traveling will be done from daylight to dark, after which the tent will be set up with the stove in the center and beds of new-cut brushwood prepared around it. The trappers and travelers will find a train awaiting them for their journey south. Through the snow they will be looking for the sledges of the Hudson's Bay Company so that no fresh hardships would be encountered."

Asked whether the balloonists would be traveling by Montreal or Toronto, Mr. Bradbury replied that at the time he left them they had not mapped out their plan. He thought that Lieut. Farrell, who seems to have suffered most throughout the trying experience, might have to make the journey in a very short time, but the other two would be able to accompany the sleighs on foot and thereby be spared."

BILLS FLOOD THE ASSEMBLY.

Thirty-five of Varying Importance Presented.

Fresnoite Would Change
Town Classification.

State Commission Market
Plan Also Offered.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 7.—About thirty-five bills of varying importance came forth today when the order of business was reached in the Assembly, the largest and most imposing in point of physical dimensions being a proposed charter for the city of Fresno, presented by McDowell.

Roosevelt offered a bill for the licensing and regulation of aircraft that caused the speaker to hesitate perceptibly in trying to find a suitable committee. Motor vehicles, revenue and taxation, and others were suggested, but it finally went to the committee on navigation.

STATE LICENSING.

The bill provides for State licensing of planes and pilots, after examining and certifying them, respectively, provides a licensing system somewhat similar to that used for automobiles, and sets a scale of small fees to be paid for licenses and pilots. It also prohibits "stunt flying" below 1500 feet or over crowded sections, and makes other safety provisions.

Merriam of Long Beach presented a bill providing that in the event of death of husband or wife, one-half of community property should be subject to the will of the decedent, or to administration, under certain restrictions.

Relator of Fresno county offered a bill to make all cities of more than 400,000 population cities of the first class, and should be subject to the classification of Los Angeles.

He also offered a bill limiting the ownership of California land by aliens to that now owned by them and forbidding the future acquisition of real property by them.

OFFERS MARKET PLAN.

Cleveland of Watsonville presented his State commission market plan. It would provide for the establishment of a State commission to regulate the market for agricultural products.

Other bills aimed at the cost of living were offered by Lyon of Los Angeles. He had one bill providing that the State should purchase foodstuffs in bulk and distribute them to the people at a reduced price.

Long of Richmond offered a bill to provide for the destruction of foodstuffs in restraint of trade and providing penalties.

Hughes of Alameda presented a bill requiring a censorship on motion picture productions. His bill would require that all films shown in public places be submitted to and approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction before being shown.

Before the official, fixing a fee of $2 a reel to be paid by producers, and if the film is not approved, the fee would be forfeited.

Morrison of San Francisco offered an official report on the maintenance of two fire boats now maintained by the city and county of San Francisco on the bay.

Remaining measures were of local interest only. They were technical amendments or provisions of the various codes, calculated to make existing ambiguities or clear up existing ambiguities.

WOULD BRAND CRABS.

"A bill by Mr. Lyons, providing for the branding of all crabs in California," he said, "is now before the Assembly. It is a bill to brand crabs, and it is a bill to brand crabs."

There is a bill to brand crabs, and it is a bill to brand crabs. It is a bill to brand crabs, and it is a bill to brand crabs.

ANTI-JAP RESOLUTION.

The outstanding feature of today's brief session of the Legislature, at the conclusion of which a recess was taken until Monday morning at 11 o'clock, was adoption by the Senate of Inman's resolution memorializing the Federal government to grant no citizenship rights to Japanese and to take no action in connection with the death of Ralph Rose, a sailor, and Joel Hoyt, a cigar store owner, during disturbances in the South Side "black belt" last fall, halted his trial several times with outbreaks of temper during which he repeatedly threatened to "lick anyone in the room."

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Grover C. Redding, self-styled "Prince of Abyssinia," charged with murder in connection with the death of Ralph Rose, a sailor, and Joel Hoyt, a cigar store owner, during disturbances in the South Side "black belt" last fall, halted his trial several times with outbreaks of temper during which he repeatedly threatened to "lick anyone in the room."

Once Redding jumped from his chair and hit a bailiff on the jaw. Redding, who is a Negro, was taken to the hospital and is now recovering from his wounds.

a statement from MULLEN AND BLUETT

We have reason to believe that many people are awaiting with considerable anticipation an announcement from the Mullen and Bluett Co. of a "cut price sale."

We feel, therefore, that out of consideration for the buying public, we should make it known that there will be no such sale at this store.

That does not mean that we do not want your business—are not willing to compete for it. We do and are, but clearance sales are not only against the policy under which we do business, but they are unnecessary under that policy.

Your dollar will buy just as much value in this store today as it will anywhere else—and our prices are regular prices on regular Mullen and Bluett quality—quality that you cannot duplicate elsewhere at any price.

Our prices are lower, much lower than six months ago—yes, than three months ago. The present remarkably low prices are made possible by trade conditions, our resources and market prestige.

We believe our Clothes Values are the best in this community and we know that by buying your requirements now you will secure as good, or better, values than any time within the coming season.

We welcome comparison of price.

GOLF TOURNEYS BOB UP GALORE.

New Flintridge Course to be Thrown Open Today.

Play Pasadena Country Club Matches Tomorrow.

Trophy to be Contested for by News Hounds.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

Golf tournaments are breaking like a rash in these parts. Today the new Flintridge course, lying three miles northwest of Pasadena, in the picturesque Arroyo Seco, will be thrown open to the public. The thing that will be done is to have a special tournament for both amateurs and pros.

Starting at 10 o'clock this morning the pros will get under way for a thirty-six-hole tourney. The activities of the amateurs will be confined to an eighteen-hole trip, and they will swing into action beginning at 1 o'clock.

Dave Findlay, the professional in charge of the course. Speaking for the public at last night Dave said that thirty of the best players in the state will be on hand to play today over nine holes, the second nine to be opened at a later date. Dave said that what with running off an amateur tourney and a professional one at the same time, he ought to be as busy today as a man with a harelip trying to get a telephone number.

Claim is made that the eighteen holes, when the architects are through tinkering with the gizards, will be one of the sportiest in the south. The clubhouse commands a magnificent view of the mountains, with the Arroyo Seco in the foreground and the La Canada Valley to the west.

Practically every professional in the south, and there is quite a mob of them, will be on hand for the going today. Arthur Clarkson, professional of the to-be Ambassador course, here in Spalding yesterday and treated himself to a nifty pair of silver gray breeches and a beautiful pair of golf shoes. Arthur will be there with balls on the list of "pros" who will battle for the title that the turnout for the college football season is every one on hand. Here it is: Eddie Clarke, Ed Gayer, Leo Diegel, Eddie Jones, Charlie Mayo, Bud Martin, Ernest Martin, Frank Peabody, Tom Stevens, Arthur Rigby, Dave Findlay, Dave Lavin, Vic O'Neill, Jack Crook, George A. O'Neill, Jack Munro, Bert Grodzicki, Charles Johnson, J. A. Patterson, Dave Smith, Willie Lewis, Ben Berrian, Harry Peabody, Dave Kober, Roy Kober, Joe Hagerman, Jack Stone, Billy Amor, Cliff Hackway, Tom Kelly, Chick Fraser and John Malloy.

For those who don't care for the golf end of it a session of horse riding will entertain the visitors. At a buffet luncheon former Senator Frank E. Flint will entertain a society of folks in honor of the course which bears his name.

Tomorrow on the beautiful new Pasadena Country Club course two matches will be played. In the morning a mixed foursome will hold a match at the Pasadena Country Club. In the afternoon a foursome will be played. In the morning a mixed foursome will hold a match at the Pasadena Country Club. In the afternoon a foursome will be played.

Something entirely novel in the way of tournaments is that called by the affable George O'Neill for next Wednesday at the Pasadena Country Club. O'Neill, who, with Shot-Putter Jack Crook, is responsible for the marvelous layout at the Pasadena Country Club, has arranged a nice, ghastly tourney for the hard-worked news hounds. Not only has he arranged it, but George has promised to put up a peerless trophy that would make a king turn green with envy.

On top of that along comes Mr. M. H. Dyer with an announcement of a trophy, as well as a prize in the shape of a whiskey bottle. The following talented literary artists of the Fourth Estate, whom it will be a rare treat to watch in action, have been named: Harry Ransom and Alex. Cusumano of the Examiner; Harry Williams of the Mailer; Fowler, Bill Henry and Paul Lowry of the Times; Darius L. Darrin, Ed (Hammond) of the Express; Fane Morton, Eddie Ransom and Ed Gallagher of the Herald, besides a few obscure literary of Pasadena.

Play is to be blind boy. Late reports last night were that Ed Moriarty had been unable to find out what it was all about in the Pasadena, Britannia. He "broke" to get the matter cleared up at the next session of the writers and present his report in a clear and concise manner in one of those "On Life's Screen" things.

Pat Higgins, the demon all-around fast-pitch expert of the United States, took a trip to the Pasadena Country Club yesterday and registered a net 87. Pitted against two worthy opponents, the estimable Mr. Higgins, however, found much satisfaction in the fact that he sunk several extremely long and seemingly impossible putts.

AMERICAN PUGS TRAINING HARD.

Professional Elevens to Romp Next Saturday.

Tuffy Conn All-Stars Will Take on Akron Squad.

Real Class is Displayed in Both of the Line-ups.

BY WILLIAM M. HENRY.

If Tuffy Conn's line can hold its own with the giant forwards of the champion Akron professional football team the game between the two elevens at Tournament Park, January 15, is liable to be one of the fast affairs on record. For Tuffy has a backfield that is unquestionably as fast as any that ever clustered behind a line.

SHEER SPEED.

For sheer speed and shiftness it is doubtful if any back in the country can rival Conn. Fred Haney and Frank Malette. Lots of folks who watched football in these parts just before the war are very willing to state that Malette is even better than Conn, while those who saw Haney perform for the Submarine Base and beat three or four teams single-handed believe that he's quite as good as the other pair.

Besides these three, Conn has a large party named Cramer, who is regarded as the greatest fullback that the State of Minnesota ever produced. According to Tuffy, Cramer is a pulverizing line plunger, a first-class kicker and an accurate and experienced forward passer. Gard, the famous Pasadena fullback, will also be in the line-up and can hold his own with pretty nearly anybody when it comes to passing.

AGILE ENDS.

In the line Conn has a couple of the fastest ends in captivity in the country. One is a former end of the University of Notre Dame. Both are fast and agile receivers of the forward pass. Thornhill, who will play on tackle for Conn, is a former member of the old Pittsburgh eleven which won fame for MacLennan, the great end of the team. He is a huge moose, weighing over 200 pounds and is very fast. He holds his own with pretty nearly anybody of his line-up, but it is understood that it is quite up to par. Scooby Simpson, a southern center of a year ago and one of the finest little fighters that ever thrived on an opponent's ear, will off-number ends and line backs.

There is no positive certainty that eleven men could not be picked from among the players mentioned, who would defeat the first All-American selection. Walter Camp doubtless is too thorough a football man to really understand the history of football. Conn's scores are only touchdowns made against Akron this season and did it after receiving a letter from the Akron team.

One of the most interesting features of his All-American teams are those mentioned.

William McCarthy's acceptance of the Coast League presidency was a sensational step under the circumstances. The league directors could not have to have it otherwise. McCarthy made an aggressive move.

Uniteds Tackle L.A.A.C. Eleven at Soccer Game.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club eleven and the Uniteds, soccer enemies for years, will clash at Exposition Park tomorrow afternoon.

The game will mark the second meeting of the clubs and the outcome will depend in large measure on the championship aspirations of the Mercury Club athletes.

The Uniteds are undefeated this season, while the Athletic Club has lost but one contest and that one to the leaders. The going promises to be fast and thrilling, and should prove a good game to watch.

Other games scheduled in the Southern California soccer league are the Los Angeles Athletic Club and Long Beach Gordons at Tournament Park, and the Long Beach Uniteds and Santa Monica at Long Beach.

In their contest with the Sons, the Uniteds are slated to win. They have gotten together a winning aggregation that is proving troublesome for the other clubs. Their latest acquisition—Saidler at center—has proven a real find, and has supplied the club, by virtue of his shooting ability, with the necessary offensive power to win games.

RIVERSIDE HANGS IT ON THE REDLANDS.

REDLANDS, Jan. 7.—As final preparation for the game with the University of California here tomorrow night the University of Redlands basketball team had a practice game with the Riverside Y.M.C.A. team here tonight.

Used his full string of about a dozen men in various combinations and the Riverside team, which included such well-known stars as Dole, Hoagland, Cattell, Dalgren and Cattell.

The new field is now in readiness for the big game and two daylight practices have been held for the Riverside team.

CALIFORNIA TECHS TO PLAY VARSITY.

Tomorrow night the University of Southern California basketball artists will play their first game of the season at Pasadena Y.M.C.A. court with the strong California Tech aggregation.

The Methodists have only been working for about two weeks, while the Caltech team has been in training since the early part of December. However, U.S.C. has some strong men and a fast game and expects to make a strong bid for conference honors.

WICHITA CLUB TO GET LOCAL LADS.

Two graduates of the local sandlots will next season make their professional debuts with the Wichita club of the Western League.

According to an announcement by Joe Rafferty, Claire McDonnell and Sam Leake have been signed by the Wichita club for the coming season. McDonnell is a right-handed pitcher, and Leake a combination catcher and infielder. Both are now players with the Hammond Lumber Company team.

MANY WILL COMPETE IN L.A.A.C. MEETS.

A number of high-geared athletes are to compete for the Los Angeles Athletic Club this year in track and field sports. In the list are Reg Casper (weight); James Dwyer (all-around man from the Meadowbrook club); Peg Murray, former Stanford hurdler; Charles Miller (quarter-mile runner from Ohio State); Langdon Mead (hop, skip and jump); J. Hanner (javelin); and Morris Kirksey, star sprinter from Stanford.

HOLLYWOOD HAS IT EASY WITH ANAHEIM.

Hollywood had a walkaway with Anaheim in their basketball game at Hollywood High School yesterday. The Poolfishers winning by a score of 49 to 9. The score at the end of the first half was 25 to 4. Anaheim, who had a lead in the second half on free throws, failing to throw a field goal. In a contest between the Hollywood faculty five and the alumni team the former won, 32 to 27.

ROSS TO COMPETE.

Norman Ross, the champion swimmer, is to participate in the national 150-yard back-stroke title race to be held at the L.A.A.C. on January 15. The event will be the L.A.A.C. is expected to furnish him with his sternest competition.

LASKER ACCEPTS CHESS CONTEST.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Dr. Emanuel Lasker, former world's chess champion, has sent a cable to the Union Club of Havana fixing March 10 as the date for the commencement of a match for the championship with Jose Capablanca, Cuban player, who holds the title. Lasker is expected to Times from Rotterdam.

TRAPSHOOTERS' MEETING.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—The American Trapshooting Association opened its annual meeting today, but because of the large volume of business to be attended to, the award of the grand American handicap will be made at tomorrow's session. Cleveland, Atlanta City and Chicago are the chief contestants for the shoot.

WILL MEET 'EM ALL.

CLEVELAND (O.) Jan. 7.—Replying to a deft issued by the manager of Danny Frush, featherweight, Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, declared tonight that he will meet Frush, Chaney or anybody in the world who will make the featherweight limit, providing the purse is large enough.

McNALLY TO PLAY SHORT.

Likely to Succeed Johnny Mitchell in the Tiger Nine; is Crack Fielder.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

A possible successor to Johnny Mitchell on the Vernon club is causing much conjecture, as with the passing of Pratt to other pastures, Miller Huggins needs all the infielders held over from last season.

However, the trade with Boston which brought among others, Infielder McNally to the Yankees, is regarded as tending to clear the situation. Among baseball men it is thought that McNally was included in the deal for no other purpose than to send him to Vernon.

This boy is a phenomenal fielder, best hardly strong enough with the stick to play regularly in the majors. McNally with the two or three pitchers and catcher he has picked over by New York, would round out the Maier machine in good shape, as there is little doubt that he will be the old hands, with the possible exception of Hough, will be back on the job. Meantime, Easler will not be watching out for these parts. If he can develop another Meusel or Mitchell for trading purposes it would be valuable to the Yankees.

AND HE TURNED THIS WAD DOWN.

Branch Rickey Refuses $300,000 for Roger Hornsby.

Purchasers Would Throw in Four Good Players, Too.

Proposition Sets a Record for High-Priced Ball Deals.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

ORANGE (Tex.) Jan. 7.—Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Nationals, here today confirmed reports that he had refused an offer of $300,000 and four players for Roger Hornsby, second baseman and champion batsman of the league.

QUITE A WAD.

Branch Rickey, manager of the Cardinals, is in Houston, Tex., where the reports originated. Officials here said they were unable to deny or confirm the report. The name of the club supposed to have made the offer has not been mentioned.

This figure more than doubles the reported purchase price given by the New York Yankees for Babe Ruth in a deal which was conceded to put a record valuation on a player's services, and is just twice the size of the offer made by the New York Nationals for Hornsby early last season.

Hornsby hit .370 during the past season, and though ranking ninth among second basemen in fielding, had over 100 chances more than any of his rivals.

CALTEK LACED BY MERCURY.

L.A.A.C. Casaba Pushers Too Fast, Foxy for Opponents from Pasadena.

The basketball pushers from Caltek were overwhelmed by the Los Angeles Athletic Club sharpshins in a game at the L.A.A.C. last night, the final score being 43 to 12.

The first half ended with the score 12 to 4 in favor of the Mercury Club. Caltek players getting the bulge at the start of the game, but being unable to hold it.

Tony Wayman of the L.A.A.C. was the star basket shot of the evening's pastime, punching the iron bullets for five field goals and ten foul shots. This was particularly good, considering the fact that he had only in the game for about half of the second period. Laswell came out second best with two field goals and three in the first half and three in the second, with one free throw, netting his eleven points.

The third half of the evening was made by Red Wilson in the second half. Red Wilson dribbled the ball all the way down the court, passed to Olney under the basket, who snapped it back to Red, the latter dropping it in.

Caltek players had rather indifferent success at shooting baskets, being rather well guarded by the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Both Coach Ray Call and Roy Hallett tried out several different combinations of players.

Abel, chairman of the supervisors of Kern county placed before the board of Los Angeles counties for completing the California Motor Truck Highway from Palmdale to Los Angeles an appropriation of the estimated cost of $6,000,000 among the counties which would chiefly benefit by the project.

The road from Los Angeles to Palmdale has already been built to give a section of highway through Lancaster and McKittrick, altogether 128 miles already completed and 100-miles to be completed the system and to give a new and direct route from Los Angeles Harbor to the oil fields of the State.

Senator Doolittle said after the yesterday that the plan is feasible with the policy which has been made for the harbor highway, and that it is necessary the greatest benefit possible will be derived from that highway said that the only question is that of the apportionment of the burden.

COUNTY'S SHARE DONE.

Kern county has already constructed part of the route, and it would intend to help up the work in some way other than an equitable distribution of burdens according to benefits derived had been made he declared.

Los Angeles officials will call for their share next month at which representatives of the other five counties, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Fresno and Los Angeles will meet, and the final decision whether will probably be reached at that time.

The proposed highway would pass through the following localities, starting from Los Angeles: Calaveras Park, Camarillo, Santa Maria, Oxnard, Patterson, Santa Fe Springs, McKittrick, Santa Monica, Dana and to Palmdale.

Local Chinese War Spreads to San Francisco.

No Decision by Peace Board; More Time Asked

Four Families Deny Charge of Framed Lottery.

Peace between the rival tong of Chinatown remained out of sight last night when the tong leaders received their reports from the mediators that are sitting in San Francisco.

Last night was to have ended the armistice between the two tongs, but a long distance phone message at a late hour stated that the mediators had been granted a 24-hour extension of the armistice between the three local branches of the Bing Kong, the Hop Sing and the Fong Fong tongs.

The Chinese Consul-General had called in all of the twelve representatives of the Chinese tongs to hear the woes of the local tong leaders. They were to determine which tong, the Hop Sing or the Fong Fong, was the guilty party in the slaying of two Bing Kong men here last week. A decision could not be reached by the end of the day, however, which was granted by the Bing Kong representatives. A final report will be delayed or at least a few days.

According to the San Francisco police, the tong hostilities threaten to shift from Los Angeles to San Francisco, where, the police said, fifty gunmen of the Four Families tong were being hastily recruited. The northern police fear that this action may result in the bloodiest

Wealthy Broker Offers Cash to Finance Case.

Mrs. Lofie Louise Peete, charged with the murder of Jacob C. Denton, will take the stand in her own defense as the dramatic climax of the trial, scheduled to begin in Judge Willis's court January 19. This decision, according to reliable information obtained by The Times, is included as a substantial factor in the plans of Public Defender Aggeler, who is to represent Mrs. Peete.

The possibility of a change of tactics, rumored some days ago, and promptly and decidedly denied by Mrs. Peete the same day, again loomed yesterday when the name of a well-to-do broker, said to be connected with a New York-San Francisco financial house, was linked with the case by a statement that the man has offered to finance Mrs. Peete's trial, should she choose to retain a private attorney at that time, or to go to her assistance in the next trial, should a disagreement of the jury or the granting of a new trial make it possible. This man has been definitely identified by the District Attorney's investigator. His identity and existence is said to have been admitted by Mrs. Peet early in the investigation.

The ordinance is modeled after the Volstead Act and is just as stringent. The ordinance is designed to provide for the regulation of the distribution of liquor and the manufacture of home-brew without legal authority.

It may not be carried on the person or by conveyance without a legal permit under this county law.

It is illegal to sell, barter, or give the sale of liquor and alcohol, which cannot be vended without a proper permit.

The ordinance permits the Supervisors to issue a permit "when it is shown by applicant for such permit that he has a legitimate demand for liquor and that he will observe all laws relating to the sale of such liquors." The permit is effective for two years and may be renewed by the Supervisors.

The penalty for a violation of the ordinance is a fine not to exceed $300 and imprisonment in the jail for not exceeding ninety days.

The new City Attorney may point out to the Council that it could pass the requested ordinance and put the burden of the testing of the courts up to the landlords, who would be prosecuted for its violation.

Mr. Stephens may also point out to the Council that they could, if they desire, call a special election and place the requested ordinance before the voters. Reconsidering its recent recommendation to the effect that its members refuse to pay the occupational tax to the city this year, the board of directors of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association yesterday advised its members to pay the tax for the first quarter.

I. H. Rice, president of the association, in transmitting the recommendation to members, explained that the board arrived at this decision after convincing itself that the city authorities are doing everything in their power to make a satisfactory adjustment of tax-budgets.

The association is advised by President Rice that the assistance of a budget committee, to be furnished by the merchants and manufacturers, has been offered to the Finance Committee of the City Council for the purpose of scrutinizing the demands and needs of the several city departments for the ensuing year.

Two Accused Under Bank Act Face Court; One Pleads Not Guilty, Other Asks for Time.

Edward J. Pyle, former vice-president of the National Bank and Trust Company of Pasadena, and W. J. Conner, former president of the Master Pictures Inc., who were indicted recently by the Federal Grand Jury on the charge of violating the National Bank Act, were arraigned for pleading in U. S. District Judge Miesner's court yesterday.

The strained relations between Pyle and Conner were indicated by the fact that although they sat close together along the rail of the courtroom, they did not speak or recognize each other.

Pyle was represented by Capt. John D. Fredericks, and entered a plea of not guilty to the charges of the indictment. The case will be set for trial when the term calendar is called, next Monday.

When Conner was first arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Long, he was represented by Lecompte Davis, who was in the courtroom yesterday for the purpose of withdrawing from the case. He was spared this act on his part, however, when, after the name of Conner had been called, Carl Rogers appeared as his attorney. Mr. Rogers said he was not prepared to have his client enter his plea at this time. He had just been called into the case, and had not even read the indictment, he stated. It was suggested that the matter go over for plea by Conner, and this was agreed to. It is understood that as the men are jointly indicted, the case will be set for an early hearing.

Mr. Davis said he had withdrawn from the case because Conner had neither paid him anything nor arranged for such payment. "Of course, he promises," said Davis, "but something more substantial is needed in the law business. I understand he is broke, and can't even raise enough money to pay his board bill in the County Jail."

Jobless Visalia Man Writes He Hasn't Nerve to be Crook; Takes Poison.

This is part of a note found by the dead body of P. J. Sinclair, 38 years of age, of Visalia, in a rooming-house at 323 South Grand avenue yesterday by Police Detectives King and Oaks. He had ended his life several days ago by swallowing poison. He had just come here from Visalia where he leaves a widow. He was attempting to obtain work and failed. Wednesday afternoon he was seen at the hotel and stated that he was about to take a trip.

Friday Morning Club.
Beware! Don't let your dreams hide them in the deepest recesses of your soul. They are dangerous to yourself and family. This sinister warning, subconsciously given at the meeting of the Friday Morning Club, yesterday, with standing room at a premium, by Prof. George M. Stratton, head of the psychology department of the University of California, speaking on "Psychomancy," was subconsciously received and consciously understood, for at the luncheon hour, every woman clamored for the chance to tell of her own pet dream.

That dreams reveal every hidden diabolism of human nature, if correctly interpreted; that dreaming of a hat, a ladder, an umbrella, a bridge and several other seemingly innocent things reveals a basic passion for someone of the opposite sex; that dreams show "psychic wounds," horrible intentions, erotic repression and black tempers, even in the smallest of individuals, is the statement of Freud, the argutest modern authority in psychoanalysis, as given in exposition by Prof. Stratton yesterday.

But Prof. Stratton does not agree with Freud in all his deductions. He showed not only the value of Freud's treatment of disease by psychoanalysis, but pointed out the danger of Freud's insistence that the emotion felt by the patient must be transferred to the doctor before the patient can be made well. He spoke further in a humorous and popular though scientific way of the complexities of the mental attitude of repression, the great dangers of psychoanalysis and its future possibilities for good when more thoroughly understood.

Interestingly pertinent were the many questions asked at the close of the lecture. Among the questioners were Mrs. O. P. Clark, Dr. Dorothea Moore and Alma Whitaker Reynolds, the latter being the first one, excepting the professor, to tell her life-long recurring dream for the interpretation of the large audience of women.

The luncheon speakers were Dr. Carl S. Patton, pastor of the First Congregational Church, who reviewed in a most comprehensive way the events of 1920, and "the two big sports of the world, Russia and Ireland;" Mrs. Frederick A. Dow, former president of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, representing the government, spoke of "Thrill" and Dr. Lulu Peters read excerpts from her diary, written during her last two years of Red Cross work in Serbia and Albania.

Masonic Rites Today for Rail Chief Surgeon.

Funeral services for Dr. George L. Hutchinson, 410 Westmoreland avenue, for the past seven years chief surgeon of the Pacific Electric system, who died yesterday, will be conducted at 2 o'clock, at 2 o'clock at the Overholzer mortuary, under the auspices of the Inglewood Masonic Lodge, with Dr. Hugh C. Walker officiating. Burial will be in Inglewood Cemetery.

In 1900 he came to Los Angeles on the surgical staff of the Southern Pacific and Pacific Electric. He was appointed chief surgeon for the Pacific Electric in July, 1912, and served in that capacity until compelled to ask for leave of absence several weeks ago on account of failing health.

Good Times Will Return In The Spring

As day follows night, and flood-tide follows ebb, so inevitably must the existing business depression some time come to an end and the inflooding tides of prosperity begin to rise. But what the anxious business man asks just now is, "When will the tide turn, when will the dawn break, when will the buyer cease from striking and the wheels of industry again begin to revolve?" To these questions, after a careful search of the daily and financial press, THE LITERARY DIGEST, this week, is at least able to give an answer from men who should know whereof they speak. Herbert Hoover, E. H. Gary, J. Ogden Armour, Francis H. Sisson, B. C. Forbes, Guy Emerson, Charles M. Schwab, Roger W. Babson, and Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board, are some of the men whose opinions are mentioned.

This article is of more than usual interest and value to the American public and constitutes a survey of business conditions and prospects that should hearten every reader.

TRY TO PROVE HE'S INSURGENT.

Testimony Shows Cline Made County Sue for Fees.

No Malfeasance Established, Say Sheriff's Lawyers.

Charges Strongly Supported, Avers Prosecution.

Testimony tending to show the "insurgent" methods of Sheriff Cline in refusing to turn fees into the county treasury, was introduced by the county yesterday in the suit before a mixed jury in Judge Monroe's court to oust the Sheriff from office. The county has twenty-one counts against the Sheriff and is seeking by documentary and other evidence to show that he put it in the position of bringing suits to compel him to turn into the county treasury the fees for transporting prisoners.

Assistant Auditor Besma of the grand jury testified he went to the Sheriff's office to get the fee record and found it was kept in a locked drawer. He said the deputy he saw declared it was private property and not a public record, and could not be inspected except in the deputy's presence. Mr. Besma was able to see the book but was not allowed to take it out of the office.

It was shown by the records of the District Court of Appeals that the Sheriff owed $486 representing per diem from the State, which he refused to pay into the county treasury. Judgment was obtained against him and he was cited into court for contempt. When the case was called, his attorney produced a check and turned it over to County Counsel Hill.

Miss Minnie O. Smally, stenographer for the Supervisors, read her notes of meetings at which the Sheriff's fees were under discussion. These showed that it was understood when the Sheriff's salary was increased, that this was to be in lieu of the money he said he had to advance for expenses.

The Supervisors also discussed the proposition of the Sheriff purchasing the food for the prisoners, the county to foot the bills. The Sheriff would not agree to this plan. He

WANTS TO COPY POLICE SYSTEM.

Minneapolis to Send Man Here to Study Methods of Department.

Methods and systems used by the police department of this city so impressed John Francis Walker, Superintendent of Police in Minneapolis, when he visited Los Angeles last summer, that yesterday he telegraphed to Chief of Police Pennington asking permission to send a Minneapolis police department expert here to study the workings of the local department, with a view to improving the system used in the Minnesota city.

The manner in which the Los Angeles detective bureau lists missing or stolen articles and missing or "wanted" men and women particularly impressed Supt. Walker.

Chief Pennington, in his reply, wired that a Minneapolis officer would be welcomed here and would be given every opportunity for studying at first hand the police methods of this city.

He permitted the county to pay for the food it would be bankrupt in six months. Sheriff Cline's attorneys assert the county has shown nothing down to date to prove their contention of malfeasance in office. The county's attorneys, on the other hand, contend the evidence strongly supports the charges. The case will be resumed Monday.

TROMBONE STOLEN.

A silver trombone valued at over $200 and belonging to Max Fisher, a musician at the new Ambassador Hotel was stolen from the hotel music-room some time early yesterday morning, according to a report filed with the police. Fisher reported his loss to the police and offered a reward of $25 for the return of the instrument.

WEIRD STORY OF MUTILATION.

Hospital Patient Says She Saw Woman Cut in Park.

Believes Mrs. Sudow Victim, She Tells Authorities.

Asserts "Dope Ring" Heads Authors of Crime.

A dramatic tale of having witnessed the mutilation of a woman, whom she believes to have been Mrs. Pay Sudow, by a man who she says was known to her as "John" Lamar, was related to the District Attorney's investigators, and police detectives yesterday by Mrs. Philipia (Irene) Berger. The dead, she said, was committed in Griffith Park, about two miles from the place at Edendale where Mrs. Sudow's body was found. A man whose name has been mentioned in connection with the case was taken into the woman's presence by the investigators and later Mrs. Berger said he looked like Lamar.

Mrs. Berger was arrested at Long Beach for passing bad checks and has been under observation at the County Hospital. She said she had come under the influence of the heads of a local "dope" ring, who wanted her to pass bad checks for them. About December 7, she said, she was taken by these persons at night to a lonely canyon in Griffith Park, above the animal cages, and there saw a woman lying on the ground in what appeared to be a dying condition. The man she called Lamar, she said, took a pen knife from his pocket, gouged out the woman's eyes and then slashed her face with the blade. Mrs. Berger then fainted, according to her story, and did not recover consciousness until on her way back to Long Beach.

Mrs. Berger said Mrs. Sudow was engaged in selling narcotics and that she had incurred the enmity of the "ring" for that reason. Bernard Sudow, husband of the slain woman, an, says he never heard during his wife's lifetime that she was engaged in such a business. He had never heard of Mrs. Berger before, he said.

CALLS SELF A VICTIM OF BUNKO MEN.

"Big Hutch," Others Are Named in Suit Against Bank Involving Large Sum.

Memories of the big fraud game asserted to have been played by Everett A. Hutchins, better known as "Big Hutch," were revived yesterday by the filing in the United States District Court of the bank by Thomas Donahue of Altoona, Pa., against the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank, and Otis B. Berry, former assistant cashier of the bank, and former manager of the Hollywood branch of the corporation, to recover $43,175.45, the amount of account of the criminal actions of Berry, while acting in his official capacities.

Donahue asserts in his bill that on Jan. 8, 1920, he was the owner of 100 shares of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, fifty shares of the New York Central Railroad Company, twenty-five shares of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Company, fifty shares of the Great Northern Railway Company, 130 shares of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, fifty shares of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, fifty shares of the Pullman Palace Car Company, fifty shares of the Pennsylvania Railway Company, eighty shares of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and eighty shares of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway Company, of an aggregate value of $47,000.

He says that on Jan. 10, 1920, he delivered the securities to the bank to sell, and turn over the proceeds to the plaintiff. He says that at the time Otis B. Berry was assistant cashier and intended to embezzle the proceeds of the sale of these stocks, and that on Jan. 3, 1920, he did sell the stock for $41,746.02, which money was held in trust for Donahue. It is charged that on Jan. 23, 1920, Berry did embezzle the money and did convert it to his own use. It is declared that by the exercise of the proper amount of caution could have prevented the act on the part of one of its employees. On Nov. 8, 1920, he says, he demanded the proceeds of the sale and was refused.

Donahue also alleges that on Jan. 23, 1920, he deposited for collection, a check given by the J. M. Doran Company, for $557.71, and that this sum was embezzled by Berry. On the same date he deposited another check drawn by E. F. Hutton & Co., for $174,645, for collection. Both of these checks were drawn to the order of the plaintiff, and both were paid. Berry is charged with embezzling the proceeds of both instruments.

It is set forth in the bill that Everett A. Hutchins ("Big Hutch"), Fred Mayan, alias Fred James, alias Fred Waldron; Joe Connelly, William Mettler, Albert B. Thompson, J. W. Davis, H. C. Hathaway, Fred Williams, Joe Stanley, J. Carter, George Carter, Joe Quigley and others unknown to the plaintiff, did steal and carry away the $43,175.45, represented by the sale of the stocks and checks as set out. A judgment is therefore asked against the defendants for the principal sum of $43,175.45, and an additional $10,000 as damages.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Boy Scouts Converse Angeles Mesa to Get People to Church.

That the youth of our nation must be brought into our churches in this generation of America is lost was the statement of Isaac Naylor, who is holding a series of revival meetings in the Mesa Congregational Church. After what he terms a Rip Van Winkle sleep of twenty years, Mr. Naylor was converted during a prayer-meeting service at the First Methodist Church. He declared last night that he expects to devote the remaining years of his life to the ministry.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 58, under the leadership of Calvin McCray, are making a canvass of the neighborhood in an effort to get the people out. At the two services to be held tomorrow Mr. Naylor will speak. His text for this morning is "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

Colorado Chief Asks for Change in Election Law.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) DENVER, Jan. 7.—In his message to the Colorado Legislature in joint assembly here today, Gov. Shoup criticized the direct primary law as too unwieldy and too expensive to be continued, and recommended a return to the party convention system unless an improved law can be drafted.

Gov. Shoup said the direct primary law places a premium on financial standing rather than on capacity for public service. The Governor's principal recommendations included: Legislative aid for farmers and stock growers; increase in inheritance tax rate; passage of blue sky laws; appropriation for soldiers' memorial; and constructive child welfare legislation.

RICE TRANSPORTATION RATES ARE LOWERED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—An order reducing the charge for transporting rice in earload lots approximately 25 per cent was issued by the Railroad Commission today as the result of a complaint by the Pacific Rice Growers' Association and by rice millers against the carriers.

The commission denied the complainants' request for milling in transit privileges and mileage rates. The new rates, which are for peddling rice, or rice in the hull, are on a basis of 125 per cent. the rates for grain.

MANTELL TRIUMPHS IN "RICHARD III."

Shakespearean actors are always covetous of the roles of Hamlet, and in a lesser degree of Richard III, for the latter role is one fairly inhuman from its excess of cold-blooded intellectuality and ambition, but with its brilliant mockery and saturnine humor serving not only as a relieving highlight, but also affording supreme opportunity for subtle delivery.

Robert Mantell made the most of every such opportunity Thursday night, and succeeded in that most difficult and delicately balanced feat of evoking the mockery of Richard with dignity and yet with such incisive saturnine wit as to bring laughter with every telling point.

Emotionalism, even in the ghost scene, was subservient to the intellectual. Mantell's Richard is ever a man of keen and chilly steel. Yet color and mood were not lacking, but they were furnished in the cool tastes of intellectualism.

The children who played the little princes in the tower are deserving of much praise. They were real children in turn childishly gay, and roughish, and later apprehensive, and their terror-stricken cries, when presented before the eyes of the audience, were truly pathetic.

Earle Williams' Next.
After having been buffeted about the Pacific Ocean in filming his recent production, "Diamonds Adrift," during which he fell down a hatchway on an old-fashioned sailing vessel and completed a motor trip through California designed for purposes of "resting up," but which he says really tired him out more than ever, Earle Williams, Vitaphone star, feels that he is justified in waiting a bit before he begins on his next feature.

Vitaphone apparently has decided to give Mr. Williams the best story material obtainable. The company ernmost at the regular symphony concert. He played the "Scheherazade" by Rimsky-Korsakoff, which met with such approval by the audience that three times after the performance was the director recalled.

The color and atmosphere with which this suite is filled, are actually a combination resulting from clever orchestration, and the strong oriental rhythms. Noack, concertmaster, played the introductions, those sections which represent the "And on Such a Day" of the Arabian Nights Tales, after which the stories follow.

Noack was so roundly applauded, the orchestra was in good form, and I presented the work with lively interest and genuine abandon.

Max Rosen, Russian violinist, was the soloist, playing the Tchaikowsky Concerto in D Major. Rosen has an exquisite tone, with many subtle variations. He has that finish of phrasing and precision which we expect from a highly talented A-list pupil. His musical understanding marks him as unusually gifted. His interpretation was well balanced and thoughtful, and he has a happy lack of superfluous manner, with a distinct expression of his personality.

Two short numbers from Ljadov closed the program. The "Legend of Kikora" and the picturesque "Baba Jaga" were captivating and amply served to demonstrate that Rothwell has the Russians completely within his grasp.

Ted Browning may be borrowed from Crl Lacombe by Oliver Moros-in Los Angeles simlind this week.

Mr. Morosco and Frank Egan, at whose Little Theater the stage drama is now playing, sat through two showings of Browning's underworld melodrama, "Outside the Law" at the Superba Theater. Both appeared impressed with Browning's ability as a producer of crook plays. Mr.

The double bill of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I Pagliacci," given by the Gallo Opera Company at Philharmonic Auditorium, last evening, attracted one of the largest audiences which has attended during this season of opera.

"Singing for the Fourth time this week, Bullerster appeared as Tonio.
The audience was extremely enthusiastic, recalling him several times after the prologue.

Madeline Keltie, who was successful as Musetta in "Boheme," was again in the role of the Nedda. Her acting is vivacious and her voice adequate to the role.

She has not, however, a voice of uniform strength throughout, and the orchestra is a trifle loud for her at times, but she is quite generally effective dramatically and musically, and her appearance is quite charming.

Inarrillo, singing the tenor roles in both operas, was agreeable as Canio. He also suffered somewhat from a too zealous orchestral accompanyment. Amadeo Bad-sing Harlequin and D'Amico as Silvio were both satisfactory.

"Cavalleria Rusticana" was received with the usual enthusiasm,
Alice Gentile being the Santuzza. Her interpretation was as well thought out and sincere as her partner's, although her voice is not so well suited to the role, which is too much for her to display the resonant quality of her lower register.

Giuseppe Agostini was to have sung the role of Turiddu, but he was

LEMON GROWERS DISCUSS TARIFF.

Representatives Will Attend Congress Hearings.

Lineberger at Meeting, Gets Ready for House Fight.

Citrus Men Fear Emergency Bill Has No Chance.

Lemon growers from Pomona, Claremont, San Dimas and other communities in the citrus belt were in conference yesterday for several hours with officials of the California Citrus League here arranging for the appearance of representatives of the industry before Congressional committees in Washington next week.

While the present crop of lemons is being picked from the trees and hauled to the roadsides, where it is being given away to automobile parties, or dumped in the dry washes, owners of the groves are co-operating with the citrus league in an attempt to get a higher tariff that will prevent the Italian crop from flooding the market.

G. Harold Powell, general manager of the California Citrus League, outlined to the growers the plan to be followed in appearing before the committees of the House and Senate. He leaves for Washington Thursday, and will be joined by other members of the citrus league committee.

According to statements made by growers yesterday the lemon industry in California has been in a chaotic condition since the Underwood Democratic tariff bill became effective, following the lifting of the self-imposed embargo on the part of Italy that was a part of the war program of conserving food. Sicilian lemons have for a year been flooding the eastern markets.

Walter F. Lineberger, Republican nominee for Congress in the Ninth District, who Republicans hope will fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman-elect Charles F. Van de Water, was present at yesterday's meeting, taking part in the discussion and preparing for the fight for the protective tariff bill in the next session.

Lemon growers insist that the present deplorable condition of the industry is due to Democratic law. Little hope is held out that the emergency tariff bill before Congress will ever become a law, it is stated yesterday. It is pointed out that, inasmuch as it is a high protective tariff measure, it is sure to be vetoed by President Wilson, and that the two houses will not develop strength enough to pass it over the President's veto.

Determined preparations are being made to put the high protective tariff schedule through the committee for inclusion in the regular tariff bill, which will undoubtedly be considered as a first order of business of the special session to be called by President Harding in March.

FINED FOR LANDING BOYS.

Capt. G. Andrade, in command of the Mexican fishing boat San Antonio, was fined $500 by U. S. District Judge Tripp yesterday for violation of the immigration laws, in bringing two Mexican boys from Magdalena Bay and landing them at night at San Pedro, without having them inspected as provided by the Federal laws. The San Antonio is a twelve-ton fishing boat, and the boys were members of the crew.

ANGLE ARCH DAM PAPERS ARE SIGNED.

Pacoima Canyon Structure Will be New Type; To Save Nearly Half of Cost.

Karl Brehm, president of the Constant Angle Arch Dam Company yesterday received the contract for the design of the great Pacoima Canyon Dam, after it had been signed by Chairman Dodge of the Board of Supervisors. It calls for payment to the company on the basis of 4 per cent of the cost of the structure.

The contract was signed after Mr. Brehm had presented letters from Arthur Paul Davis, engineer of the United States Reclamation Service; State Engineer McClure, City Engineer Griffin and Flood Control Engineer Reagan, who stated that the Brehm design of the dam was the best fitted for Pacoima Canyon.

The 400-foot dam will be the highest in the world and will cost $1,500,000. The contract for the construction of the dam will be awarded in thirty days. According to the agreement the Brehm design calls for 142,000 cubic yards of concrete while a gravity dam would require 205,000 cubic yards. The constant angle dam, Maj. Griffin says, will cost $1,250,000 less to build than a gravity dam.

The next steps in the construction of the dam are the appropriation of the Legislature of at least $800,000 as its share in the improvement, and for the presentation to the City Council by the people of Van Nuys of a petition for the creation of a municipal improvement district to provide for the city's participation to the extent of about $500,000 in the cost of the building, the money to be raised by the sale of bonds. The county has already available $200,000 for the work.

IN NATIONAL RESERVE.

Complete Work on Hilltop Fire Line; Start Another One.

Supervisor Allen of the Angeles National Reserve announced yesterday that the new fire line, running on the divide between Baldy, Lookout and Sunset Peaks, a distance of about four miles, has been completed. It lies along the main ridge, between San Antonio and San Dimas canyons. Work was begun on the fire line at the time of the big fire two years ago. The prime object of the line is to protect San Antonio Canyon. The work has been under the management of a crew of men under Ranger Arthur R. Shay at their head.

Work was begun yesterday by a rank of men under Ranger Joseph Hayden on the construction of a new fire line from the Apple White grade to Little Creek, a distance of about four miles. This improvement will cost about $1200.

SOLD DRUGS TO WOMAN.

Roy Wilson was given a six months' term in the Los Angeles County Jail yesterday by U. S. District Judge Tripp for violation of the Harrison narcotic law. He has been in jail two months. Wilson sold drugs to a woman who is an addict.
